CONTEXT

The World Organisation for Animal Health (OIE) is the intergovernmental organisation responsible for improving animal health and welfare worldwide. The OIE develops standards that its 182 Members can use to protect themselves from incursions of diseases or pathogens while avoiding unjustified trade barriers. The World Trade Organization (WTO) recognises the OIE as the international reference organisation for ensuring the sanitary safety of international trade of animals and animal products. e-CERISE has been designed to facilitate the implementation of OIE standards. This module will provide you with a generic introduction of the OIE.

PROGRAMME

Main objective:

This module is generic and an introduction to the other e-Cerise modules which are of a more technical nature. It just aims at presentation OIE organisation, mandate, missions, and some of its activities.

Learning objectives:

At the end of this module, participants will be able to:

- Understand the history of the OIE and its evolution to face current animal health challenges,
- Get to know the strategic plan that guides OIE actions,
- Figure out the central role of communication in the OIE plan for the period 2016-2020,
- Become an ambassador of the OIE in your country and your region.

Course Content:

This module is composed of 4 sections:

Section I: THE OIE, 95 YEARS OF HISTORY

Section II: OIE PRIORITIES FOR THE PERIOD 2016-2020

Section III: TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Section IV: TAKE HOME MESSAGE

References:

As it is an introductory, it does relate to any OIE standards. For reference, we suggest you go to the OIE global website and visit the following webpages:

Teaching methods:

This e-module is knowledge-based and therefore contains a series of documents to read and videos to watch.

An exercise, in the format of a 10-question Quiz is included to check the acquisition of knowledge.

A final webinar is scheduled (See the 2021 e-CERISE schedule for further details) to offer an opportunity of further exchanges, notably based on the results of the quiz.

An e-forum is also associated to the module so that participants can exchange on the content of the module among themselves or with the Tutor throughout the e-CERISE course.

Prerequisites

None (introductory module) but this module is a pre-requisite to all other e-CERISE Modules.
